

M.Ed. in Counseling Student Affairs (CSA) Accepting Applications Now!

The CSA program provides individuals who are interested in student affairs with an understanding of historical and current higher education contexts along with valuable counseling knowledge and skills.

- Learn the latest concepts, theories, and trends in higher education as you prepare for a career in student affairs.
- Learn foundational principles of counseling theory and processes that foster student development and support success in higher education settings.
- Apply what you are learning in real-world work environments through graduate assistantships, fieldwork experiences, and practicum opportunities.
- Graduate assistantships within NAU Student Affairs Division are part-time, 20 hours per week, and include a monthly stipend and tuition waiver. Depending on the position, additional benefits may be available.

Fall 2024 application is NOW OPEN

Priority deadline is January 1, 2024

<https://www.applyweb.com/northazq/index.ftl>

eps@nau.edu

928.523.7103

COE Room 110, Building 27
801 S Knoles Dr.
Flagstaff, AZ 86011