

LEAD THE TRANSFORMATION IN EDUCATION

Doctorate Program in Higher Education Leadership Doctorate Program in Educational Leadership (K-12)

Cal Lutheran's doctorate programs offer reflective and principled administrative leaders practical preparation for today's educational landscape, empowering seasoned professionals like you to further enhance your abilities and position yourself for heightened leadership roles.

The program helps you lead positive organizational change, and engage in the national and international dialogue surrounding critical education issues and develop the expertise to support access, diversity, and success for students.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Designed for working professionals, coursework is completed with 60% in class and 40% online instruction
- Flexible delivery method with weekend format; Friday evening and daytime Saturday, meeting four times during each 15 week semester
- Small class size and personal mentorship from faculty experts and practicing educational leaders
- Embedded dissertation
- The program is offered at our Thousand Oaks campus

LEARN MORE

Contact Beth Walker, Graduate Admission Counselor

 (805) 493-3124  bethwalker@CalLutheran.edu

 CalLutheran.edu/eddhied | CalLutheran.edu/eddk12

Graduate School of Education

California
Lutheran
University