

AGAPSS Newsletter - November 2018

---

Last Call for Nominations:

Outstanding Professional in Graduate & Professional Student Service Award

Deadline: November 9, 2018

Recognize a graduate or professional student affairs practitioner who has:

- Made significant and/or innovative contributions that support the holistic development of graduate and professional students outside the classroom
- Represented and advocated for the varying needs of graduate and professional students in this continually changing landscape of higher education
- Established themselves as a leader in their student affairs-related department and work, becoming the go-to person for their colleagues and students who they serve

To nominate yourself or a colleague, send the following to agruener@middlebury.edu:

- Your name, title, institution, and email address,
- Nominee's name, title, institution, email address, C.V./resume, recommendation letter with description of how the nominee meets the standards for this award, and any additional supporting materials.

Nominees must have worked a minimum of two years in the field, made significant contributions to the knowledge community and/or NASPA through their service and leadership, made contributions that are above and beyond the expected duties of their present position, and be a member of the AGAPSS Knowledge Community. Email Alisyn Gruener (agruener@middlebury.edu) with questions.

---

Save the Date:

AGAPSS Live Briefing - Link to register coming soon!

December 4, 2018 at 2:00 PM EST

Join AGAPSS and Paul Artale, Program Manager for Graduate Student Engagement at the University of Michigan, for our next Live Briefing! This webinar will review King Talks, an annual program at the University of Michigan that gives graduate students the opportunity to publicly communicate the relevance of their work to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s legacy. Participants will learn how a communal experience deepens connection to campus for graduate students, and will learn practical strategies for helping graduate students integrate theory, research, and communication skills.

Save the Date:

Promising Practices in Supporting Graduate & Professional Students Symposium

June 6-8, 2019 - Washington University in St. Louis

The second Promising Practices Symposium will be held June 6th through 8th at Washington University in St. Louis. Please be on the lookout for a call for programs, coming soon. For more information, visit promising.wustl.edu.

PROMISING PRACTICES
IN SUPPORTING GRADUATE & PROFESSIONAL STUDENTS

Hold the Date for our Second Promising Practices Symposium
for more information visit promising.wustl.edu
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY IN ST. LOUIS • JUNE 6-8, 2019

---

Follow us on Social Media . . .

Join our AGAPSS group on Facebook

AGAPSS on Twitter @AGAPSS_KC

AGAPSS on LinkedIn